New Hire to Facilitate Client Integrations and Address Evolving Industry Needs

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, March 29, 2010 – Compliance Implementation Services (CIS), a pharmaceutical compliance consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Daniel Farina has joined the company as CalcPartner™ and ClaimsPartner™ Operations Manager and Integration Lead.

In his new role, Dan will facilitate the integration of new clients into CalcPartner, a proprietary toolset for effectively conducting and preserving all applicable government pricing (GP) calculations for pharmaceutical clients and ClaimsPartner, another proprietary service that compliments CalcPartner by processing quarterly Medicaid claims. Dan will coordinate and facilitate demonstrations of both service offerings to provide potential clients the transparency and detail needed to confidently make informed decisions. Dan will systematize and coordinate daily operations and ensure our clients have access to the full breadth of CIS's GP team when it's needed. Lastly, Dan will work with CIS' applications development team to facilitate continued functional enhancements to both systems, enabling CIS to continue to address our clients' evolving needs.

"Dan's industry and consulting experience, across the product lifecycle, combined with his project management and problem solving approach, make him a strong addition to CIS," said Chris Cobourn, Vice President of Regulatory Compliance at CIS. "His role with clients will ensure they're provided clear expectations around current and future service offerings as well as a key point of contact for issue resolution and client questions for CalcPartner and ClaimsPartner."

Dan Farina comes to CIS from Accenture's Pharmaceutical R&D Practice and has industry experience in the areas of Regulatory Affairs, CDM/Biostatistics/Standards Governance, Site/Study Management. Dan received his Bachelors of Science in Pharmaceutical Product Development from West Chester University.

About CIS
