CIS Takes Government Calculations Service to Next Level with New Director

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, April 05, 2010 – Compliance Implementation Services (CIS), a pharmaceutical compliance consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Matt Gorman has joined the management team as Director of Government Pricing Programs.

Matt Gorman has a diverse array of industry experience that ranges from systems integration to regulatory compliance audits and software training instruction. Additional professional activities involve strategic decision analyses, which resulted in a more holistic viewpoint when tackling compliance projects.

As Director of Government Pricing Programs, Matt will lead growth and development of the CalcPartner™ and ClaimsPartner™ business unit. These proprietary services offer clients both data storage and program-driven services for effectively conducting and preserving all government pricing calculations and processing quarterly Medicaid claims.

“The addition of Matt Gorman as Director of the CalcPartner service offering enables CIS to take this area to the next level,” said Chris Cobourn, VP Regulatory Compliance and Practice Lead. “He is able to work directly with CIS executive leadership to ensure that all CalcPartner and ClaimsPartner activities are aligned with CIS’ corporate mission and vision.”

Matt Gorman comes to CIS with over eleven years of experience at a “Big 4” accounting firm with emphasis on project management, information technology, financial analysis, risk assessment and management, and business process education for the pharmaceutical, chemical and manufacturing industries. He has specialization in the pharmaceutical industry, including government pricing and PBM rebate adjudication. Matt also has consulting experience related to product portfolio management, utilizing the discipline of Multiple Objective Decision Analysis. Matt received both his Executive MBA and Bachelor of Chemical Engineering from Villanova University.
